 Wonderful Newfoundland's

Linda Barkas

October 29, 1948 – January 5, 2013

Linda Barkas (nee Summer) was an original.

Linda was a true Californian, a native San Diegan. Her Mom, Marge and brother Steve (sister in law, DeDe) are local north county residents.

Linda and her husband Steve of 41 years made San Diego County their home, eventually settling in Valley Center on their Black Dog Ranch. Surrounded by nature and her adored big black dogs this was Linda's sanctuary.

Thor, a big black Newfoundland was the start of an adventure. He introduced Linda to a whole new world. The incredible ride took many turns including the conformation show ring, earning working titles including a DID and WRD, co-authoring the book, "Last Words" with enthusiastic friends who also loved Newfoundlands and breeding under the Seaworthy Kennel name.

Linda was a woman of many facets. She was a skilled hairstylist who enjoyed complimenting others and making you feel good. Linda shared her knowledge of dogs and loved working as a veterinary technician. The beauty and freedom of nature was important to her and the spirit of her life.

Linda had a wry sense of amusement and made us smile.

She will be missed.
